

Employment Description

- SAT Tutor / Teacher -

Description: Student-Tutor is a quickly growing, local tutoring company helping kids K-12 achieve their academic goals. We help through 1-on-1 tutoring in all subjects including SAT prep (inperson and on-line), and test prep classes.

Job Opportunities:

- SAT tutoring 1-on-1 (inperson and/or online)
- part-time SAT prep teaching (15 students or less)

Tutor Minimum Qualifications:

- Scores: 700+ score per section qualified to tutor. If scores are misplaced or outdated, you can take a free test to show this qualification.
- Experience working with kids ages 12-18 and good sense of humor (appropriate for family audience).
- Strong mathematics skills and ability to explain math concepts in a variety of easy-to-understand ways.
- Strong writing skills (grammar, punctuation, word choice, sentence flow, consideration of audience, etc)
- Strong critical thinking skills.
- Experience on the web & with computers
- Reliable personal vehicle and valid driver's license (if inperson)
- Dependable, responsive, considerate. Willingness to go above and beyond to help kids succeed.

Tutor Hours:

- 1-on-1 online and in-person tutoring available
- Must have availability in the M-Th 3-8pm range

Teacher Minimum Qualifications:

same as above plus:

- BA/BS: Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.
- FCC: Has valid fingerprint clearance card
- Experience teaching and/or presenting in front of groups. Strong speaking skills.

Teacher Hours:

Our SAT Prep Classes run for 5 consecutive weeks with a few different components.

- InPerson Classes: (5) Sundays for 3 hours in the 11.30-6.30pm range
- Online E-Classes: (5) Wednesdays 7:15-8:15pm (could adjust slightly)
- *Very minimal 'prep/grading' work required between classes.
- *No reimbursement for travel expenses.

Support Materials for Teaching and/or Tutoring:

We have PowerPoints, worksheets, and games with SAT prep curriculum, so you do not need to create the tutoring/teaching material. Students you tutor also have access to video tutorials for supplemental and homework assignment support.
